

PALM VILLAGER

A PUBLICATION OF PALM VILLAGE RETIREMENT COMMUNITY • WINTER 2010

NEW RESTAURANTS, NEW PLAYERS, MORE LIVING LEGACY!

This year's Cinnamon Jamboree on October 2nd enjoyed more visitors than in recent memory. Over 600 people graced our beautiful campus to enjoy the Cinnabon Buns and much more! Maybe the new food vendors such as JJ Dukes, J's Sports Grill, Bravo Farms, or David's Burgers inspired locals to try the new foods and flavors? Possibly the fact that Palm Village enjoys a full census with many new members to our family, have led their families to enjoy our fall festival? Possibly, the great weather, or just the good will of friends of Palm Village led to an exceptionally positive day.

Palm Village sold out all the food provided by the vendors by 1:00pm. Next year we will need to recruit additional vendors for the growing crowds. That's a challenge we are always glad to meet.

Everyone knew it was a family event as we listened to the giggles and shrills of the children as they jumped on and traversed the slides of the many bounce houses. Happy faces were everywhere as the children enjoyed the face painting and the visit from Ronald McDonald. Even our CEO, David Reimer, publicly professed his love for his wife by having her name,

It is not too early to look forward to Corn Toss 2011!

This “indoor horseshoes” contest is fast becoming a favorite of residents and guests alike. Over 15 teams registered for the contest and the playing was a highlight of the day.

We are hoping that we can fill a 32 team tournament next fall. The Residents and Open divisions have differing lengths to toss the corn bags, accommodating the participation of all ages. This year’s contestants were treated to a Cinnabon and the winners of each division received a gift certificate from a local food vendor who had contributed to our Jamboree.

Plan to visit www.Palmvillage.org soon and consider making a year-end gift to our Living Legacy Fund, which still requires approximately $100,000 to meet the needs of those residents who outlive their resources. And be sure to bookmark our site and come back next year when we begin offering online registration for Corn Toss 2011.

WITH THE SUCCESS OF “CORN TOSS” THIS YEAR, PLAN TO GET IN ON THE FUN NEXT YEAR ON OCTOBER 1, 2011!

Fun with a purpose:
This year’s Corn Toss Tournament was the highlight of Palm Village’s Annual Cinnamon Jamboree. The game is played much like Horseshoes, and was a big hit with residents and guests visiting Palm Village.

Sandy, painted on his arm.

And of course the food from our gracious restaurants, Main Street Café, Fugazzi's of Visalia, Papa Murphy's, Chapala Mexican Restaurant, Jon's Bear Club, El Rincon de America and Brooks Ranch who returned again this year along with the newcomers, means we can rely that you will be served a delicious lunch.

Thanks to each of you who attended and each of you who volunteered and donated to help us raise nearly $20,000 for our Living Legacy Fund!

Children always have a good time at Cinnamon Jamboree. Popular activities include (L to R) Face Painting, the numerous Bounce Houses and Slides, and a visit from Ronald McDonald.

Palm Village Independent Living Patio Homes and Assisted Living Suites continue to be wonderful homes people are choosing to live in and thrive throughout their senior years.

Many start their day with an invigorating walk on our safe 17-acre campus, then spend some time in the Fitness Center, followed with a cool drink and fresh fruit in our snack bar.

No need to cook lunch because a nutritious meal prepared by our own chef will be waiting in the Garden Room or Barbara's with many opportunities to socialize with friends and neighbors.

The number of seniors moving to Palm Village, including some from other states, continues to increase as they realize the wonderful benefits of living in the only Continuing Care Retirement Community between Fresno and Bakersfield.

Among the benefits of living in an Independent Living Patio Home at Palm Village is the support our residents receive from our Registered Nurse.

Call today and get the facts about life at Palm Village. We'll explore the many choices you have.
